Art Unit: 1762

1. The pre-amendments filed 3/13/02, 5/3/02 and 8/01/02 have been considered and entered.

Claims 1-17 have been canceled. Claims 18-40 have been added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 27,30 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Popeck (3,294,578) or Ferrier et al. (5,468,515).

Popeck (3,294,578) teaches deposition of metal on a metal surface. Silver is deposited on a copper surface with a composition including silver ions, hydrobromic or hydroiodic acid and a nitrogen containing compound which can be an amide or amine (col. 1, line 10 – col. 2, line 60).

Ferrier et al. (5,468,515) teaches a composition and a method for selective plating. The invention comprises a composition that includes a precious metal to be deposited (silver, gold, etc.), and acid such as hydrochloric acid and a imidazole component. (abstract and example 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 28 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Popeck (3,294,578) or Ferrier et al. (5,468,515) in combination with JP 04-110,474.

Details above describing Popeck (3,294,578) or Ferrier et al. (5,468,515) are incorporated here.

Popeck (3,294,578) or Ferrier et al. (5,468,515) fail to teach treating the metal surface with the "additive" instead of having the "additive" in the solution, i.e. a second treating step.

JP 04-110,474 teaches preventing staining of a silver metal surface comprising plating silver on a metal surface and then contacting the silver surface with a organic compound, i.e. a mercaptan, to prevent discoloration of the metal from moisture.

Therefore, it would have been obvious for one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified either Popeck (3,294,578) or Ferrier et al. (5,468,515) by utilizing a two-step process v. a one step process, as evidenced by JP 04-110,474 with the expectation of achieving similar results, i.e. protecting the silver coating.

Allowable Subject Matter
